UCI Transportation continues to work with campus planners to meet the demands of our growing University. UCI is currently working with a qualified consultant to evaluate potential sites will help advance the next phases of parking facility construction. As we continue through the process of developing our next parking facility, we will provide updates to the campus community.

CURRENTLY IN DEVELOPMENT

- Approximately 1800 stalls
- Offset loss of parking stalls from buildings
- Electric vehicle charging ports